

TYPE OF AWARDS & SCHOLARSHIPS

Name of Awards	Basis of Award	Amount	Programme	Nationality	Bond	Other Factors	Application	Website Address
International Business Fellowship (IBF) Programme	Scholastic merit	S$6,000 settling-in allowance and S$80,000 for tuition fees and living expenses	Full-time NUS MBA Double Degree with Peking University	Singaporean	To serve in Singapore-based companies for 2 years to undertake work related to the country where they have studied in	At least 3 years of working experience and active participation in social or community service demonstrating strong leadership qualities	Application form found on www.iesingapore.com/ibf Application deadline is 31 May 2009	www.iesingapore.com/ibf
Lien Foundation Scholarship	Scholastic merit and career track record with potential to take up leadership positions in Voluntary Welfare Organisations (VWOs)	Tuition fees, maintenance allowance, book allowance and any other compulsory fees	All full-time and part-time MBA programmes	Singaporean or Singapore Permanent Resident	Bond duration depends on nature and value of the scholarship	-	Application form found on http://www.ncss.org.sg/career/highlights_lienfoundation.asp Application deadline is 31 May 2009	http://www.ncss.org.sg/career/highlights_lienfoundation.asp
IMBA Mandarin Alumni Award	Scholastic merit, career track record and financial need Performance in interview and other qualities	S$2,000	Full-time NUS MBA Double Degree with Peking University	Nationals of the People's Republic of China and currently residing in China	No	-	Applicants who accepted the admission offer will be automatically considered	http://mba.nus.edu/finedu.htm
CapitaLand International Scholarship	Scholastic merit, career track record and financial need Performance in interview and other qualities	Tuition fee and other compulsory fees, accommodation, books, stipend, travel, family subsistence, computer subsidy and settling-in allowance	Full-time MBA programme (specializing in real estate)	Nationals of the People's Republic of China and Vietnam and currently residing in China and Vietnam	2-3 years The actual duration of the work period will be determined by the programme of studies undertaken.	-	Applicants who accepted the admission offer will be automatically considered	www.capitaland.com/en/AboutCapitaLand/Scholarships
Keppel International Scholarship	Scholastic merit, career track record and financial need Performance in	Tuition fee and other compulsory fees, accommodation, books, stipend,	Full-time MBA programme	Nationals of Vietnam and Russia preferred	2 years	-	Applicants who accepted the admission offer will be automatically considered	www.kepcorp.com

	interview and other qualities	travel, family subsistence, computer subsidy and settling-in allowance
Peh Chin Hua Bursary	Financial need	S$3,000 for MBA student and S$8,000 for IMBA student	Full-time MBA and IMBA programmes	Singaporean (incoming and existing students)	No	-	Application form found on http://mba.nus.edu/finedu.htm Application deadline is 30 April 2009	http://mba.nus.edu/finedu.htm
Sampoerna Foundation – Singapore Education MBA Scholarships	Leadership potential and interest in and commitment to community and national development	US$70,000 – US$150,000 depending on programme duration, university and country. Covers tuition fee, visa application fee, GMAT test fee, university application fee, return airfares, living and book allowance	Full-time MBA programme	Indonesian citizen under 35 years old.	Return and work in Indonesia for 5 consecutive years	-	Application found on Sampoerna Foundation's website. Application deadline follows admission application deadline	www.sampoernafoundation.org/
NUS MBA Study Award (Merit)	Scholastic Merit & Financial Need Performance in interview and other qualities	Quarter of prevailing tuition fee	All full-time MBA & Double Degree programmes	All	No	Not allowed to hold concurrent awards/scholarships/grants, etc. Award-holder needs to assist the NUS MBA Programmes Office for up to 50hrs, maintain CAP of 3.5 and minimum B grade	Applicants who accepted the admission offer will be automatically considered. To be considered, all admission applications to be submitted by 31 January 2009	http://mba.nus.edu/finedu.htm
NUS MBA Study Award (Director's)	Scholastic merit and financial need Performance in interview and other qualities	Half of prevailing tuition fee	All full-time MBA & Double Degree programmes	All	No	Not allowed to hold concurrent awards/scholarships/grants, etc. Award-holder needs to assist the NUS MBA Programmes Office for up to 50hrs, maintain CAP of 3.5 and minimum B grade	Applicants who accepted the admission offer will be automatically considered. To be considered, all admission applications to be submitted by 31 January 2009	http://mba.nus.edu/finedu.htm
NUS MBA Study Award (Dean's)	Scholastic merit, performance in interview and other qualities	Equivalent to full tuition fee	All full-time MBA & Double Degree programmes	All	No	Not allowed to hold concurrent awards/scholarships/grants, etc. Award-holder needs to assist the NUS MBA Programmes Office for up to 50hrs, maintain CAP of 3.5 and minimum B grade	Applicants who accepted the admission offer will be automatically considered. To be considered, all admission applications to be submitted by 31 January 2009	http://mba.nus.edu/finedu.htm
Ian Ferguson Scholarship	Contributions in volunteer work and financial need	S$28,000	All full-time and part-time MBA & Double	All	No	Award-holder needs to maintain CAP of 3.5	Application form found on http://mba.nus.edu/finedu.htm	http://mba.nus.edu/finedu.htm

			Degree programmes				Application deadline is 31 January 2009
Mohammed bin Rashid Fellows (MBRF) Programme	Demonstrate leadership capabilities, dedication and commitment to the middle-east's human and socio-economic progress	Tuition fee, accommodation, books, stipend and travel	All full-time MBA & Double Degree programmes	Nationals of the 22 member countries of the League of Arab States	Bond of 2 years in any of the Arab States	May need to attend an interview	Application found on the foundation's website No deadline but to apply after accepting admission offer	www.mbrfoundation.ae
Asian Development Bank(ADB)-Japan Scholarship Programme	Scholastic merit and financial need. Preference for women candidates. Will not support those who have previously studied abroad or have done a postgrad degree	Tuition fee, accommodation, books, stipend, medical insurance and travel	Full-time MBA programme	Nationals of an ADB borrowing member country	To return to home country to work	-	Application form found on http://mba.nus.edu/finedu.htm Application deadline is 31 January 2009	www.adb.org/JSP/
Spring Singapore's Management Development (MDS) Scholarship	Currently working in a SME or interested in joining one. Have less than 5 years working experience	Full-time MBA: 70% of expenses such as tuition fees and stipend. Part-time MBA: 90% of tuition fees and other related expenses.	All full-time and part-time MBA programmes	Singaporean or Singapore Permanent Resident	A bond of 2 years	Serve a 3-month internship in the SME prior to embarking on the MBA if you are a new recruit	Application found on the Spring Singapore's website Application deadline follows the admission application deadline	www.spring.gov.sg/mds
Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Scholarship – funded by the Singapore's Ministry of Education	Preference given to candidates from the government sector	Tuition fee, accommodation, books, stipend, medical insurance, student exchange participation and return travel	Full-time MBA programme	Nationals from 20 APEC member economies except Singapore	No	Not allowed to hold concurrent awards/scholarships/grants, etc.	Applicants who accepted the admission offer will be automatically considered. To be considered, all admission applications to be submitted by 31 January 2009	http://mba.nus.edu/finedu.htm

Updated as of 18 March 2009