LEE KUAN YEW SCHOOL OF PUBLIC POLICY
DEAN’S MESSAGE

The Asian Century is coming. There is no doubt now that the fastest growing economies in the world will be Asian. Goldman Sachs has predicted that the four largest economies in the world in 2050 will be China, India, USA and Japan. However, while many are confident that the Asian economies will do well, questions remain whether Asian institutions of governance will keep pace with this economic growth. This is one reason why the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy was set up: to help improve governance in Asia.

We are therefore delighted to work with our sister school, NUS Business School, to deliver a Master in Public Administration and Management (MPAM) in Chinese. Its goal is to provide first-rate public administration and business management education to develop public sector leadership. MPAM candidates will be exposed to advanced management systems from developed countries and also learn from Singapore’s experience in making innovative policies and establishing efficient systems. Through this programme, candidates will be able to enhance their effectiveness in management and decision-making, sharpen policy analysis skills, improve leadership abilities and develop a greater appreciation for and capacity to deal with complex multi-dimensional policy issues and critical challenges facing Asian countries.

We are confident that the students who enrol in the MPAM programme will benefit quickly from the rich learning environments we have created at the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy and NUS Business School.

We look forward to welcoming you to Singapore.

李光耀公共政策学院简介

目前，李光耀公共政策学院开设博士学位以及四个硕士学位课程：公共政策硕士课程、公共行政硕士学位、公共管理硕士学位、以及以中文授课的高级公共行政与管理硕士学位。这些学位课程的设计和教学方法与世界著名公共政策学院保持一致，同时也十分注重亚洲国家的公共政策经验以及它们面对的关键性挑战。李光耀公共政策学院也提供一系列多元化高质量的管理培训课程。其旗舰课程是与美国哥伦比亚大学国际公共事务学院联办、为期一个月的高级管理课程。该课程由世界级大师和决策者执教，围绕领导力、治理和全球趋势等课题设计创新的教学内容。自2007年7月起，李光耀公共政策学院与迪拜政府学院联办了公共管理文凭证书课程，把公共管理的理论框架与亚洲和中东的观点和经验有效地结合起来。李光耀公共政策学院拥有众多优势，其科研教学人员遍布世界各地，学生遍布五大洲，来自五十多个国家和地区，为课堂内外注入丰富和生动的学习氛围。由于研究生的大部分学习来自同学之间的互动，李光耀公共政策学院提供了一个独特的平台。促进亚洲未来的决策者和领袖间的交流，帮助他们建立全球网络。学院还拥有在全球化、竞争力、可持续发展、以及水资源政策等课题的研究能力，专注于先发地区和亚洲和中东的领导人物。决策者以及对公众思维有影响力的公众经常探访，举办公开讲座并与学生互动。

ABOUT THE LEE KUAN YEW SCHOOL OF PUBLIC POLICY

The Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy was formally launched in 2004 and has inherited a rich legacy left by its predecessor, the Public Policy Programme of National University of Singapore, set up in 1992 in partnership with the John F. Kennedy School of Government (KSG) at Harvard University.

To this day, the School continues to maintain its strong partnership with KSG. At the same time, the School has developed new partnerships with Columbia University’s School of International & Public Affairs (SIPA), the London School of Economics & Political Science (LSE) and the Institut d’Etudes Politiques de Paris (Sciences Po). These three educational institutes are the founding members of the Global Public Policy Network (GPPN), an initiative to bring together leading institutions from academia and practice to engage in a substantive dialogue around issues of global public policy concern.

In July 2007, just barely three years after it was set up, the School was formally admitted into the GPPN, becoming the latest and only Asian member. With these partnerships, we look forward to training a new generation of globally-minded public policymakers.

Currently, the School offers one PhD and four Masters programmes: the Master in Public Policy; Master in Public Administration; Master in Public Management; Master in Public Administration and Management (conducted in Chinese); and Doctor of Philosophy. While the curricula of these programmes are structured around curricula and pedagogic methods followed by many leading schools of public policy around the world, they also stand out for their emphasis on the public policy experiences of Asian countries and the critical challenges facing them. The School also offers a diverse range of high quality executive programmes.

Its flagship month-long executive programme, the Senior Management Programme, delivered by world-class faculty and practitioners, is offered jointly with SIPA and provides an innovative curriculum around the evergreen themes of Leadership, Governance and Global Trends.

In July 2007, we also established the Executive Diploma in Public Administration (EDPA) with the Dubai School of Government (DSG). The EDPA combines the academic rigour of leadership and public management tools and frameworks with Asian and Middle Eastern perspectives and experiences.

Among the many strengths of the School is a diverse faculty drawn from all over the world. An equally diverse student population of over 300 from 53 countries and territories provides a rich and lively learning environment both in and out of the classroom. Much of the learning in graduate schools comes from fellow students and in this regard, the School provides a unique opportunity to network with future generations of Asian policymakers and leaders.

The School is also home to centres of excellence that bring us to the forefront of research and policymaking on globalisation, competitiveness and water policy, among others. These make the School an attractive venue for many world leaders, policymakers and opinion-formers who frequently visit the School to give public lectures and interact with our students.
