

John Paul Chua
Investment Manager
Mapletree Investments Pte Ltd

John joined Mapletree in 2014 as part of the firm's New Markets Team responsible for its expansion into Australia, Europe and the US. He currently serves as an Investment Manager based in New York and is responsible for sourcing and acquiring office, data centers, logistics and student accommodation assets across the US. Before joining the firm, he undertook internships at the NUS Entrepreneurship Center and Citibank.

He graduated with honors from National University of Singapore (NUS) with a Bachelor of Science (Real Estate).