

Reiko AKIIKE
Managing Director & Senior Partner,
The Boston Consulting Group (Japan)

Reiko Akiike has worked extensively with companies in manufacturing, high tech and infrastructure areas. Her experience includes growth strategy development, strategy implementation, change management, and post-merger integration.

She has also served on a variety of government committees. Before joining BCG, Reiko worked as a Managing Director for the Industrial Revitalization Corporation of Japan (IRCJ) – Japanese government's first PE fund, organized to revitalize the Japanese economy and which successfully concluded.

Reiko holds an M.E. and B.E. from Waseda University, and an M.S. from the Sloan School of Management, Massachusetts Institute of Technology.