

Fang Eu-Lin
Sustainability and Climate Change Leader
PwC

Ms Fang Eu-Lin is a practicing Singapore Chartered Accountant and a Partner at PwC Singapore.

She leads the Sustainability and Climate Change Advisory department where she advises clients in the areas including but not limited to reporting, assurance, strategy studies, impact assessments, risk management, ESG due diligence, GHG Accounting, national policy development. More recently her key projects include Stewardship Standards, Sustainable Development Goals, Climate Scenario studies, Carbon Tax regulations in Singapore and in the region.

Eu-Lin's focus and experience is also in audit, governance, risk and controls, primarily for the financial services and the government sectors. During her 18 years at PwC she has worked in both Singapore and London and worked across several industries ranging from Banks, Asset Management, Investment Companies, Real Estate, Oil and Gas, Consumer, Telecommunications and Sovereign Wealth Funds.

Eu-Lin attended PwC's leadership programme at INSEAD and obtained a certificate in Sustainable Business Management from the University of Cambridge. She is an alumna of Harvard Business School and holds a degree in Accounting and Finance from University of New South Wales, Sydney. She is a Singapore and Australian Chartered Accountant.