

Professor Lawrence Loh

Director, Centre for Governance and Sustainability , NUS Business School, National University of Singapore

Prof Lawrence Loh is Director, Centre for Governance and Sustainability (CGS) at the NUS Business School, National University of Singapore (NUS). He is also Professor of Practice in Strategy and Policy at the School.

Prof Loh received a PhD in Management from Massachusetts Institute of Technology. His thesis on technology governance was awarded first prize in the worldwide doctoral dissertation competition in the field of management information systems.

At CGS, Prof Loh leads the Sustainability Reporting initiative covering Asia-Pacific, ASEAN and Singapore corporations. He also steers the Singapore Governance and Transparency Index and the ASEAN Corporate Governance Scorecard projects. Prof Loh heads the studies on leadership diversity and business integrity.

Prof Loh is a regular commentator on business and policy issues for many leading global and local media. Over the years, he serves as judge for various key sustainability awards in Asia and Singapore.

Prof Loh teaches Governance and Sustainable Business for the NUS Executive MBA program and Strategic Management for the BBA program. He regularly conducts executive programs in governance, sustainability and strategy for corporate directors and management.

Prof Loh is a recipient of the NUS Annual Teaching Excellence Award and the NUS Business School Teaching Excellence Award.