

Culture and Governance in an Era of Turbulent Change

Turbulent change is the new normal of the 21st century. The once isolated markets are interdependent today. Technology and innovation produce fundamental shifts, and new organisations are rising against established industry leaders.

Leadership in the new normal is a challenging problem in building an agile and productive organisational culture sustained by effective corporate governance.

This conference examines the building of organisational culture and governance fit for the new normal. Speakers include Mr. Kazuhiko Toyama (Managing Partner, Industrial Growth Platform Inc), Mr. Ong Boon Hwee (CEO, Stewardship Asia Centre) and prominent overseas business leaders.

The conference is jointly organised by the Centre for Business of Culture (BoC), Nanyang Business School (Nanyang Technological University) and Centre for Governance, Institutions and Organisations (CGIO), NUS Business School (National University of Singapore).
